

PROPOSED COUNCIL STUDY ISSUEFor Calendar Year: 2004Continuing ☐New ☐Previous Year (below line/defer) ☒

Issue: Review of Municipal Code provisions related to massage parlors and similar uses

Lead Department: Community Development

General Plan Element or Sub-Element: Land Use and Transportation/Law Enforcement

1. What are the key elements of the issue? What precipitated it?

This study issue will examine existing code provisions related to massage parlors, hostess bars, stress relief centers and similar uses. This item will examine current coordination between the public counter review of such businesses and review by the Director of Public Safety. In addition, this item will review current ordinance language to ensure non-proliferation of illegal activity, which might evolve from such uses.

In 2003 this item was deferred by City Council. On June 10, 2003 an informational study session was held per the request of Council providing an overview of the regulation of massage related businesses and enforcement of the city's codes. The presentation was made by the Community Development Department Neighborhood Preservation and Planning, Department of Public Safety, and the Office of the City Attorney representatives.

2. How does this relate to the General Plan or existing City Policy?

Land Use and Transportation

Policy N1.3 Support a full spectrum of conventionally located commercial, public, and quasi-public uses that add to the positive image of the city.

Law Enforcement Sub-Element

Goal 4.1A Provide a safe and secure environment for people and property in the community.

3. Origin of issue:
